This newsletter is taking a break and will return ready for the 25th October meeting. Please continue to send in your reports and photographs especially of the Senior Citizens' Concert.

In the meantime, we have congratulations to send to two people.

First, a Happy 40th Wedding Anniversary to George and Margaret Woodward who celebrated last weekend. (Someone quipped that he was let out from school for the wedding).

...and we say a big 'Happy Birthday' to the grandfather of our club, Clifford Smith who was 93 at the end of September. His grand-daughter sent me some pictures...

Here he is meeting Diana Princess of Wales and below that explaining to The Queen, the view from the newly opened Post Office Research Establishment - PORE as it was - at Martlesham, now BT.

Lunch Menu

27th September - Chunky beef lasagne served with garlic bread, topped with grated cheese and served with fresh salad

4th October - Trio of Suffolk sausages on a root vegetable mash topped with crispy onions

11th October - Salmon fillet on crushed new potatoes with fresh broccoli and white and cream sauce

18th October - Pot Roasted Lamb, root vegetable and potato hot pot served with fresh bread

25th October - Braised beef and vegetable cobbler on a creamy mash
Alternatives are available each week but must be notified in advance unless you have a 'standing order'.

The Parts of Speech

Something for the grammarians among us.

Every name is called a NOUN,
As field and fountain, street and town;

In place of noun the PRONOUN stands
As he and she can clap their hands,

The ADJECTIVE describes a thing,
As magic wand and bridal ring;

The VERB means action, something done.
To read, to write, to jump, to run;

How things are done, the ADVERBS tell,
As quickly, slowly, badly, well;

The PREPOSITION shows relation,
As in the street, or at the station;

CONJUNCTIONS join, in many ways,
Sentences, words, or phrase and phrase;

The INTERJECTION cries out, 'Hark!
i need an exclamation mark!
